

Esa Ala-Ruona, PhD

is a music therapist and psychotherapist (advanced level) working as a senior researcher at the Music Therapy Clinic for Research and Training, at University of Jyväskylä. He is a member of the Centre of Excellence in Music, Mind, Body and Brain. His research interests are in music therapy assessment and evaluation, and in studying musical interaction, meaning making and clinical processes in multimodal music therapy. He has an extensive experience in clinical music therapy in various of fields of health care and rehabilitation. His special expertise lies on creating clinical models, as well as clinical practice of integrative music psychotherapy, and vibroacoustic therapy. He is the past president of European Music Therapy Confederation (EMTC), and he regularly gives lectures and workshops on music therapy both nationally and internationally.