

Amy Clements-Cortés

PhD, RP, MTA, MT-BC

Amy Clements-Cortés, PHD, RP, MT-BC, MTA is Assistant Professor, University of Toronto; Instructor and Supervisor, Wilfrid Laurier University; Registered Psychotherapist; Research & Ethics Chair WFMT & Managing Editor-Music and Medicine.

EDUCATION

Doctor of Philosophy, University of Toronto, 2009
Master of Music, University of Toronto, 2006
Bachelor of Music Therapy, University of Windsor, 1995

CURRENT POSITIONS

Assistant Professor, Music & Health Sciences, University of Toronto, Toronto, ON Contract Academic Faculty, Faculty of Music, Wilfrid Laurier University, Waterloo, ON Academic Coordinator & Instructor, X (Ryerson) University, Toronto, ON Director, Notes by Amy Music Therapy and Psychotherapy Services, Kitchener, ON

GRANTS

Awarded $5 million + in research funds as Co-investigator & Collaborator, plus over $375,000 in research (PI), clinical and education grants.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Theoretical Courses Taught: 20 (92 times)

RESEARCH & CLINICAL SUPERVISION

Music Therapy Clinical Supervision: 250+ Pre-Professionals & Professionals (3500 hours)

Graduate Students: 7 Doctoral; 4 Master
External Examiner: 4
Undergraduate Research Projects Supervised: 35

PUBLICATIONS

Publications in refereed journals: 54
Book chapters & book entries: 38
Books: 2
Conference proceedings: 28
Non peer reviewed publications (Professional & Cultural journals): 53
Technical reports: 7
Book reviews & book forewords: 5

ACADEMIC PRESENTATIONS

Keynote: 18
Academic: 226
Posters: 26
Visiting Scholar: 25